

Final Exam for Teachers Workshop

1. The Learning Pyramid shows us that the group learns best by getting involved in the learning process – doing it, explaining it to others and discussion. True False
2. We remember very little (5 %?) of what we hear in a lecture. True False
3. Many Christians say one of the things that helped them grow the most in their faith was when a mentor gave them personal attention and helped them get involved in doing the Word, taking leadership and serving others. True False
4. In a survey, many Christians said they grew faster when they began to read the Bible for themselves during the week. True False
5. There is no value in sharing our testimony with one another in our classes. True False
6. People have busy lives, there is no value in offering times for fellowship. True False
7. Surveys have shown that most guests came to church because they were invited by a friend to a church activity (either worship, small group, social event, or a service project) True False
8. Sitting in rows is the best way to build community & improve communication. True False
9. We serve others every day at home, work and in our daily interactions. But there is also value in doing some group service projects together – 1) we can accomplish some things better as a group, 2) we gain confidence doing things with our group that we might not have done on our own, and 3) we can have a significant witness when we invite our friends to help and they can rub shoulders with a group of people who love God and have a heart to serve others. True False
10. Most people in America grew up attending church. They are comfortable visiting churches, joining a small group, introducing themselves to the pastor, and understanding what Bible to buy and how to read it. True False
11. For many people, it feels nice to sit with friends when we go to worship. True False
12. A Sunday School Teacher should consider himself a leadership coach and train as many people as he can to teach, lead discussion, & plan events. True False
13. You will find discussion questions in the literature book that you use for Sunday School. These are probably the only questions you will need. True False
14. When you have a monthly party—invite group members + lots of prospects. True True