My Commitment/My Prayer Request

If you have never made a decision to accept what Jesus did for you and follow Jesus with your life, you can make that decision right now. You can pray that prayer silently saying something like this: "Father, thank you for sending Jesus to die for my sins. Thank you for forgiving me. Help me to follow you for the rest of my life. Help me understand your purposes for my life."

- Ephesians 1:11,12 In him we were also chosen,^[e] having been predestined according to the plan of him who works out everything in conformity with the purpose of his will, in order that we, ... might be for the praise of his glory.
- Acts 17:24-28 “The God who made the world and everything in it is the Lord of heaven and earth and does not live in temples built by human hands. And he is not served by human hands, as if he needed anything. Rather, he himself gives everyone life and breath and everything else. From one man he made all the nations, that they should inhabit the whole earth; and he marked out their appointed times in history and the boundaries of their lands. God did this so that they would seek him and perhaps reach out for him and find him, though he is not far from any one of us. ‘For in him we live and move and have our being.’
- Jeremiah 29:11 For I know the plans I have for you,” declares the Lord, “plans to prosper you and not to harm you, plans to give you hope and a future.
- John 10:10 The thief comes only to steal and kill and destroy; I have come that they may have life, and have it to the full.
- Psalms 139:13-16 For you created my inmost being; you knit me together in my mother’s womb. I praise you because I am fearfully and wonderfully made; your works are wonderful, I know that full well. My frame was not hidden from you when I was made in the secret place ... Your eyes saw my unformed body; all the days ordained for me were written in your book before one of them came to be.
- Romans 6:23 For the wages of sin is death, but the gift of God is eternal life in Christ Jesus our Lord.
- John 14:1-6 “Do not let your hearts be troubled. You believe in God; believe also in me. My Father’s house has many rooms; if that were not so, would I have told you that I am going there to prepare a place for you? And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come back and take you to be with me that you also may be where I am. You know the way to the place where I am going.” Thomas said to him, “Lord, we don’t know where you are going, so how can we know the way?” Jesus answered, “I am the way and the truth and the life. No one comes to the Father except through me.
- I John 5:11-12 God has given us eternal life, and this life is in his Son. Whoever has the Son has life; whoever does not have the Son of God does not have life.
- Romans 3:23 for all have sinned and fall short of the glory of God
- Romans 3:9-12 Jews and Gentiles alike are all under the power of sin. As it is written: “There is no one righteous, not even one; there is no one who understands; there is no one who seeks God. All have turned away, they have together become worthless; there is no one who does good, not even one.”
- I John 1:8-10 If we claim to be without sin, we deceive ourselves and the truth is not in us. If we confess our sins, he is faithful and just and will forgive us our sins and purify us from all unrighteousness. If we claim we have not sinned, we make him out to be a liar and his word is not in us.
- Romans 5:1 Therefore, since we have been justified through faith, we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ

Review

Based on the things we discussed above, what are some things you learned about building community and family?

My Commitment /My Prayer Request

I want the Lord to help me in this area ...

- I want to look for people I don't know well and sit with them and talk with them at a worship service.
- I want to ask some friendly questions when I see people at church, more than just "Hey, how are you?"
- Helping a guest or new member to build relationships by introducing them to others.
- Inviting another family to my house. Getting a group together for a meal or a game night.
- Making it a goal to get to know everyone in my S.S. class in a deeper way – things like where they work, details about their children and grandchildren, their hobbies, where they have traveled, and how they accepted Christ in their life.
- I will not listen to or spread gossip.
- I will try to be a peacemaker and bring people together, being part of the solution, not the problem.
- I will ask for help when I need it. I will help others when I can.
- I will ask for forgiveness when I wrong someone. I will forgive when someone wrongs me.

- Matthew 1:21 She will give birth to a son, and you are to give him the name Jesus, because he will save his people from their sins.”
- Matthew 5:1 Now when Jesus saw the crowds, he went up on a mountainside and sat down. His disciples came to him,
- Matthew 9:38 Ask the Lord of the harvest, therefore, to send out workers into his harvest field.”

- Acts 1:8 But you will receive power when the Holy Spirit comes on you; and you will be my witnesses in Jerusalem, and in all Judea and Samaria, and to the ends of the earth.”
- Acts 11: 25, 26 Then Barnabas went to Tarsus to look for Saul, and when he found him, he brought him to Antioch. So for a whole year Barnabas and Saul met with the church and taught great numbers of people. The disciples were called Christians first at Antioch.
- Ephesians 2:19 Consequently, you are no longer foreigners and strangers, but fellow citizens with God’s people and also members of his household
- I Corinthians 12:27 Now you are the body of Christ, and each one of you is a part of it.
- I John 3:1 See what great love the Father has lavished on us, that we should be called children of God!
- John 17:20-23 I pray also for those who will believe in me through their message, that all of them may be one, Father, just as you are in me and I am in you. May they also be in us so that the world may believe that you have sent me. I have given them the glory that you gave me, that they may be one as we are one— I in them and you in me—so that they may be brought to complete unity. Then the world will know that you sent me and have loved them even as you have loved me.
- John 13:34,35 “A new command I give you: Love one another. As I have loved you, so you must love one another. By this everyone will know that you are my disciples, if you love one another.”
- Galatians 5:22,23 But the fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, gentleness and self-control.
- Galatians 5:19-21 The acts of the flesh are obvious: sexual immorality, impurity and debauchery; idolatry and witchcraft; hatred, discord, jealousy, fits of rage, selfish ambition, dissensions, factions and envy; drunkenness, orgies, and the like.
- Luke 18:9 To some who were confident of their own righteousness and looked down on everyone else, Jesus told this parable:

Discipleship: God Wants Me To Grow In Spiritual Maturity and Help Others Grow Also

Just like we help our children and grandchildren learn,
God's purpose for our life is to grow spiritually and help others grow as well.

1. You read Galatians 1-6 last week. What are some things we learned about God and about people?
2. Ask two people to be ready with a testimony. The first about how someone helped you grow spiritually. The second about how someone has tried to walk alongside another Christian and help them grow in their faith (1-2 minutes each).
3. Some people chose a career where they were an apprentice for a period of time before they worked on their own. How would you describe the difference between just attending classes and an apprenticeship or on-the-job training? Think of some real-life examples.
4. The Bible says Jesus chose 12 disciples to be his apprentices. From the verses below, explain what was involved in this apprenticeship? Discuss what Jesus did and why you think he did it.
Mark 3:14 _____ Mt 4:19 _____
Mt 9:37-38 _____ Mt 13:36 _____
Mt 16:6 _____ Mt 16:13, 15 _____
Mt 18:21,22 _____
Mt 20:25-28 _____
Mt 28:19,20 _____
John 13:5, 12-17 _____
John 17:15-18 _____
John 21:22 _____
5. After you believed in Christ and began following Him, what helped you grow the most those first few years?
6. Reading, writing, doing it, watching, helping, teaching, hearing, practicing/repetition, and discussion are all methods of learning. Which do you find most effective for learning spiritually in your own life? Give an example.
7. 1) Reading the Bible every day and 2) learning to share their faith are two things that many Christians say are the most important things they have learned. Which of these would you like to get better at? What would help you to be successful?
8. If you helped one person for a year to grow spiritually and then each of you helped someone else for one year. Year 2-4 people, year 3 -8, year 4- 16, year 5-32, year 6-64, year 7-128, year 8-256, year 9-512, year 10-1,024, year 11-2,048. This is the strategy Jesus asked his disciples to follow. Help someone who will help someone else and so on. If each Christian tried to follow this pattern, he/she would influence the lives of thousands of people.. It all starts with finding one person. Some people feel that they cannot speak to a crowd or teach a class of 10 or 20 people. But everyone can help one person. Read II Timothy 2:2 (Jesus, 12 disciples, Barnabas, Paul, Timothy, faithful men, others also – a line of disciple-making!)
9. Read Prov 27:17 What does this verse mean to you? Can you give an example of how you helping someone learn helped you to grow spiritually and learn as well?

Matthew 4:19	Come, follow me," Jesus said, "and I will make you fishers of men."
Matthew 9:37,38	"The harvest is plentiful, but the workers are few. Ask the Lord of the harvest, therefore, to send out workers into his harvest field."
Matthew 13:36	Then he left the crowd and went into the house. His disciples came to him and said, "Explain to us the parable of..."
Matthew 16:6	"Be careful," Jesus said to them. "Be on your guard against the yeast of the Pharisees and Sadducees."
Matthew 16:13,15	Jesus ... asked his disciples, "Who do people say the Son of Man is?" "But what about you?" he asked. "Who do you say I am?"
Matthew 18:21,22	Then Peter came to Jesus and asked, "Lord, how many times shall I forgive my brother or sister who sins against me? Up to seven times?" Jesus answered, "I tell you, not seven times, but seventy-seven times."
Matthew 20:25-28	Jesus called them together and said, "You know that the rulers of the Gentiles lord it over them, and their high officials exercise authority over them. Not so with you. Instead, whoever wants to become great among you must be your servant, and whoever wants to be first must be your slave— just as the Son of Man did not come to be served, but to serve, and to give his life as a ransom for many."
Matthew 28:19,20	Therefore go and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, and teaching them to obey everything I have commanded you.
John 13:5, 12-17	After that, he poured water into a basin and began to wash his disciples' feet, drying them with the towel that was wrapped around him..... When he had finished washing their feet, he put on his clothes and returned to his place. "Do you understand what I have done for you?" he asked them. "You call me 'Teacher' and 'Lord,' and rightly so, for that is what I am. Now that I, your Lord and Teacher, have washed your feet, you also should wash one another's feet. I have set you an example that you should do as I have done for you. Very truly I tell you, no servant is greater than his master, nor is a messenger greater than the one who sent him. Now that you know these things, you will be blessed if you do them."
John 17:15-18	My prayer is not that you take them out of the world but that you protect them from the evil one. They are not of the world, even as I am not of it. Sanctify them by the truth; your word is truth. As you sent me into the world, I have sent them into the world.
John 21:22	Jesus answered, "If I want him to remain alive until I return, what is that to you? You must follow me."
II Timothy 2:2	And the things you have heard me say in the presence of many witnesses entrust to reliable people who will also be qualified to teach others.
Prov 27:17	As iron sharpens iron, so one person sharpens another.

Review

What are some of the key things we discussed about serving others?

Planning Our Group Service Project

You can brainstorm now or assign a couple of class members to come up with ideas for a service project that your class can do in the next few weeks. It could be a service project that helps your church, a school, a person, a non-profit agency or something else.

My Commitment /My Prayer Request

I want the Lord to help me in this area ...

- I want to discover what my spiritual gift is and begin using it to help others. (Your pastor can help.)
- I want to be generous in helping others with my financial resources and my time.
- I want to give financially on a regular basis to support the ministries of my church.
- I want to find a ministry that I can help with every week.
- I want to start a new ministry and find people to be on my team.
- I want to have a new awareness and sensitivity to people around me who need help.
- I want to begin some new relationships in my neighborhood and see if God opens a door for the gospel, service and prayer.
- I want to help my church find some new ways to reach out to our community.

- I Peter 4:10,11 Each of you should use whatever gift you have received to serve others, as faithful stewards of God's grace in its various forms. If anyone speaks, they should do so as one who speaks the very words of God. If anyone serves, they should do so with the strength God provides, so that in all things God may be praised through Jesus Christ.
- I Corinthians 12:7 Now to each one the manifestation of the Spirit is given for the common good.
- I Corinthians 12:18 But in fact God has placed the parts in the body, every one of them, just as he wanted them to be.
- Romans 12:5-8 so in Christ we, though many, form one body, and each member belongs to all the others. We have different gifts, according to the grace given to each of us. If your gift is prophesying, then prophesy in accordance with your faith; if it is serving, then serve; if it is teaching, then teach; if it is to encourage, then give encouragement; if it is giving, then give generously; if it is to lead, do it diligently; if it is to show mercy, do it cheerfully.
- Matthew 25:35,36 For I was hungry, and you gave me something to eat, I was thirsty, and you gave me something to drink, I was a stranger and you invited me in, I needed clothes and you clothed me, I was sick and you looked after me, I was in prison and you came to visit me.'
- Romans 12:13 Share with the Lord's people who are in need. Practice hospitality.
- I Corinthians 16:1,2 Now about the collection for the Lord's people: Do what I told the Galatian churches to do. On the first day of every week, each one of you should set aside a sum of money in keeping with your income, saving it up, so that when I come no collections will have to be made.
- II Corinthians 8:7 But since you excel in everything—in faith, in speech, in knowledge, in complete earnestness and in the love we have kindled in you—see that you also excel in this grace of giving.
- II Corinthians 9:7 Each of you should give what you have decided in your heart to give, not reluctantly or under compulsion, for God loves a cheerful giver.

New Member/New Christian Class #6 God Wants You To Tell The Good News

The early Christians in 33 A.D. began to tell the story of Jesus to a world that had never heard His name. The changes in their lives, and the love, joy and peace they demonstrated were powerful testimonies as they explained to their friends the grace of God and forgiveness of sins through Jesus Christ.

1. What stood out in I Timothy 4-6 and II Tim 1-4? What did you learn about God? What did you learn about people?
2. Ask someone to tell about a time they shared the gospel and what they learned from that experience. (1-2 minutes).
3. Every Christian can tell the story of how they put their faith in Jesus Christ. You may want to include four parts:
 - a. A little bit about your life before you became a believer – ask someone in your group to share just this part of their story. (perhaps they had a church background or what it was like with no spiritual background)
 - b. How you realized your need for forgiveness – ask a 2nd person to share
 - c. What you came to understand about salvation – ask a 3rd person to share
 - d. How your life has changed – ask a 4th person to share
4. Ask someone in your group to tell about the person who explained the gospel to them and how they did it.
5. What are some of the methods people use to explain the gospel? Steps to Peace With God; The Bridge, _____

6. What did Jesus say he wanted his followers to do? What is one of the purposes God has for our life?
John 20:21 _____ Mt 28:19,20 _____ Acts 1:8 _____ Mark 5:19,20 _____
7. In II Cor 5:18-20, what does it say God gave us _____ and what does the Bible call us _____?
8. A seminary professor drew Concentric Circles on the chalk board showing the influence we can have with our story of faith.

What do you notice about our witness for Christ in this illustration?

Where does God work first? (see Circle #1) Why does God start in Circle #1 first?

Do you find it harder to share your story with family and friends or Person X (a stranger)? Why?

What are some of the fears we sometimes have and lies we believe about telling the gospel?

In Colos 4:3-6 can you find six tips that Paul wrote about sharing your faith with others?

Which of these six tips has been meaningful to you or helpful?

| Purpose #1 | Worship and center our lives around Him seven days a week |
| Purpose #2 | Build meaningful friendships with other believers |
| Purpose #3 | Grow in spiritual maturity and help others to grow also |
| Purpose #4 | Serve others with our time, talents, spiritual gifts and finances |
| Purpose #5 | Communicate His love to others by explaining the gospel as God opens a door for our conversation |

- John 20:21 Again Jesus said, "Peace be with you! As the Father has sent me, I am sending you."
- Matthew 28:19,20 Therefore go and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, and teaching them to obey everything I have commanded you. And surely, I am with you always, to the very end of the age."
- Acts 1:8 But you will receive power when the Holy Spirit comes on you; and you will be my witnesses in Jerusalem, and in all Judea and Samaria, and to the ends of the earth."
- Mark 5:19,20 "Go home to your own people and tell them how much the Lord has done for you, and how he has had mercy on you." So the man went away and began to tell in the Decapolis how much Jesus had done for him. And all the people were amazed.
- II Corinthians 5:18-20 All this is from God, who reconciled us to himself through Christ and gave us the ministry of reconciliation: that God was reconciling the world to himself in Christ, not counting people's sins against them. And he has committed to us the message of reconciliation. We are therefore Christ's ambassadors, as though God were making his appeal through us. We implore you on Christ's behalf: Be reconciled to God.
- Colossians 4:3-6 And pray for us, too, that God may open a door for our message, so that we may proclaim the mystery of Christ, for which I am in chains. Pray that I may proclaim it clearly, as I should. Be wise in the way you act toward outsiders; make the most of every opportunity. Let your conversation be always full of grace, seasoned with salt, so that you may know how to answer everyone.
- Acts 13:36 "Now when David had served God's purpose in his own generation,"
